WHERE LEADERS ARE MADE

PATHWAYS

OVERVIEW

Start your PATHWAYS learning experience

NOTE: This tutorial is meant to explain the Pathways program before you begin it. It gives you an overview of what the program is about, explains new terms that are used and gives you graphic representations of the Paths, Levels and Projects. It does not explain how to log on or what happens once you are logged on. Hopefully, it will give you a fuller and clearer picture of what is meant by Pathways. Comments are welcomed. Just email me.

PATHWAYS AT A GLANCE

Pathways is designed to promote your personal and professional development. As the foundation of the Toastmasters experience, Pathways is designed to help you build the competencies you need to communicate and lead. There are 10 Pathways that you can choose based on your personal and professional goals. These are:

Dynamic Leadership
Effective Coaching
Innovative Planning
Leadership Development
Motivational Strategies

Persuasive Influence
Presentation Mastery
Strategic Relationships
Team Collaboration
Visionary Communication

Each Pathway has five levels. Level 1 in each Pathway is the same. Subsequent levels are geared to their specific Pathway.

PATHWAYS: An Overview

PATHWAYS is Toastmasters' new education program! It will now serve as the foundation of your Toastmasters experience, and is designed to help you build the competencies you need to communicate and lead.

When starting Pathways, you will be introduced to new terms, such as: Assessment, Navigator, Base Camp, Core Competencies, Paths, Projects, Levels, and others. I've added some brief descriptions of these new terms below:

ASSESSMENT: Before you start, you take the Pathways Assessment online (log in required). There are ten different learning paths. To find the one that is right for you, you begin by taking the assessment. It helps you identify the path that best meets your needs, interests and goals. After responding to a series of questions, you will be presented with the path that best fits you and your current experience. You may be excited, energized or even surprised by the path recommended to you. The Pathways Assessment helps to point you in the best possible direction. You'll need to log in to participate in the Assessment.

www.toastmasters.org/StartPathways

After you receive your assessment results, you can embark on the Path recommended to you or choose one of the other nine paths available. No matter which Path you choose, you will complete at least 14 educational projects and present a minimum of 15 prepared speeches. You will also serve in various meeting roles. Each Path is divided into five levels that build in complexity. The levels help you build on and apply what you have learned.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Active Listening

This project covers the difference between hearing and listening, and steps for exploring the ways listening helps build strong, lasting connections.

Purpose: The purpose of this project is to demonstrate your ability to listen to what others say.

Overview: At a club meeting, fulfill the role of Topicsmaster. As Topicsmaster, comment on each speaker's Table Topics® speech to demonstrate your active listening skills. For example, you might say, "Thank you. That was a compelling opinion on the benefits of gardening. I understand you feel strongly that everyone needs to spend some time doing something they love."

This project includes:

- Serving as Topicsmaster at a club meeting

Every time you complete a level, you'll receive level badges signifying your achievement. You can also award feedback badges to recognize members of your club.

more about Badges >>

Certificates - Receive digital certificates whenever you reach important milestones in Pathways. Print your certificates from Base Camp, and when you complete a path, you can request a printed version from World Headquarters.

DIGITAL BADGES

Start your PATHWAYS learning experience

In Pathways, you can achieve an award after your first three speeches.

Meeting frequent milestones earns you badges, certificates and letter and other honors. You can also give on line feedback badges to other members of your home club - badges with uplifting labels like Collaborative, Innovative and Inspirational.

At each level, you complete two to three projects, and when you finish a level, you earn a digital badge and a digital certificate. The awards are displayed in Base Camp, the program's learning management system. Every member has access to Base Camp, whether or not you decide to work in Pathways online or prefer to work with print materials. The awards are displayed in Base Camp, the program's learning management system. Every member has access to Base Camp, whether or you decide to work in Pathways online or prefer to work with print materials.

When you complete Level 3, 4 or 5 in a path, you can request a letter from Toastmasters World Headquarters to inform your employer of your achievements. And when you complete an entire path, you earn the Proficient designation. For example: "Toastmaster Margaret completed the Innovative Planning learning path and is now Innovative Planning Proficient."

Early Pathways users have responded positively to the digital feedback badges. If, for example, you want to praise a member for a particularly compelling speech, you can give that person an Exceptional badge. Or let's say you want to applaud a new club member for overcoming fears to give a speech for the first time—give them a Courageous badge.

“I can already tell that these badges are definitely morale boosters for both the giver and the receiver, and they will go a long way toward keeping members engaged and motivated,” says Savitha Setlur, DTM, a member of two clubs in Northern California.

Ching received Exceptional badges from fellow club members after one of her recent speeches, along with comments praising her enthusiasm and drive. At first, she recalls, she felt some embarrassment at the “exceptional” label. But gradually she allowed herself to appreciate the compliments.

“I let my feelings of embarrassment subside,” she says, “and transform into ones of pride and gratitude to my fellow Toastmasters for recognizing my success.”

BASE CAMP MANAGER: For most clubs, the vice president education (VPE) will assume the role of Base Camp manager. The Base Camp manager helps facilitate your progress by verifying your education, approving requests and more. In the event a VPE isn't able to perform these duties, or if a club does not have a VPE, the Base Camp manager responsibilities will be fulfilled by the club president or club secretary. The central responsibilities of the Base Camp manager include:

- Approving speeches outside the club
- Verifying level completion
- Tracking member progress
- Verifying project completion for members using printed materials

YOUR CLUB EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Start your PATHWAYS learning experience

Every club has elected officers who ensure the quality and long-term success of the club. These are the members who make your club meetings happen. Your club executive committee includes the president, vice president education, vice president membership, vice president public relations, secretary, treasurer, sergeant at arms and immediate past president.

Along your journey, you may need to communicate with one or more executive committee members to complete learning projects. For example, you may need to verify with the vice president education that you managed an event. Or, if you wish to promote your club as part of an assignment, you'll need approval and guidance from the vice president public relations

Your club officers are there to help you. Use them as resources and guides. Read the following descriptions of each club executive committee member to help you determine who to reach out to when you have questions or need assistance. If you aren't sure who to speak with, your president or vice president education can help you. View this page online (page 7).

President: This officer is the chief executive officer responsible for supervision and operation of the club. The president sets the tone for the club and provides helpful, supportive leadership for all activities.

Vice president education (VPE): This officer is responsible for planning successful club meetings and making sure each member has the opportunity to achieve their educational goals. The VPE is the second-highest ranking club officer.

Vice president membership (VPM): This officer manages the process of bringing guests to meetings and encouraging those guests to become members. The VPM maintains a constant flow of new people into the club.

Vice president public relations (VPPR): This officer promotes the club in the community and notifies the media about the club news and benefits. The VPPR updates web content and social media, and safeguards the Toastmasters brand identity.

Secretary: This officer maintains club records, manages files, handles club correspondence and takes the minutes at each club and executive committee meeting.

Treasurer: This officer is the club accountant. The treasurer manages the club bank account, writes checks when approved by the executive committee and deposits dues and other club revenues.

Sergeant at arms (SAA): This officer keeps track of physical inventory. The SAA arrives early to prepare the meeting place and stays after to stow all club equipment.

Immediate past president: This officer serves as a guide and resource to club officers and members.

You may still have questions. Your VPE or other club officers can familiarize you with the club. They can explain how the club operates, help you identify your learning opportunities and explain your responsibilities as a member. Tell the VPE about your goals and ask how your club can help you achieve them. Don't be afraid to ask for help.

Communicate Change

This project focuses on creating a communication plan by gathering evidence to support the need for change and communicating change with your audience.

Purpose: The purpose of this project is to practice the skills needed to effectively communicate change to a group or organization.

Overview: Develop a plan for communicating a change to an audience affected by the change. At a club meeting, communicate the change in a 5- to 7-minute speech. You may speak about a real or hypothetical change that affects your club or another group in your life. This speech is not a report on the content of this project, but a speech about how you would or will communicate a real or hypothetical change.

This project includes:

- Developing a plan for communicating change
- A 5- to 7-minute speech

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Connect with Your Audience

This project focuses on different audience types and how to address them effectively.

Purpose: The purpose of this project is to practice the skills needed to connect with an unfamiliar audience.

Overview: Develop a 5- to 7-minute speech on a topic that is unfamiliar to the majority of your audience. Because you deliver this speech in your Toastmasters club, you are familiar with the audience members' preferences and personalities. Selecting a topic that is new or unfamiliar to your club members will allow you to practice adapting as you present. As you speak, monitor the audience's reaction to your topic and adapt as necessary to maintain engagement.

This project includes:

- A 5- to 7-minute speech

CORE COMPETENCIES

Start your PATHWAYS learning experience

CORE COMPETENCIES: It is important to note that each member using Base Camp will have the opportunity to select from many electives to extend their learning. With the addition of electives, members have the flexibility to cover all core competencies within each path. The five core competencies are: Public Speaking, Interpersonal Communication, Strategic Leadership, Management and Confidence. Confidence is unique because it cannot be taught, but is gained in every path.

Public Speaking: builds members' confidence in delivering both prepared and impromptu speeches in the Toastmasters club environment as well as their personal and professional lives. Through practice and peer evaluation, members learn how to present their messages effectively, concisely and professionally. This competency provides tools that members can use to learn prepared and impromptu speaking skills.

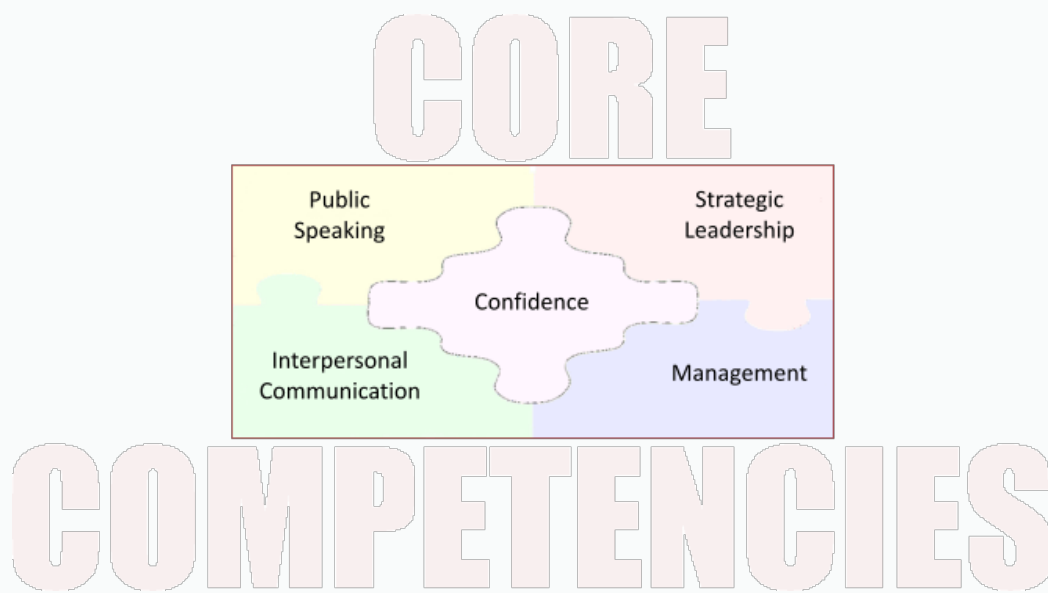

Interpersonal Communication: builds members' confidence in communicating with others, whether verbally, non-verbally, in writing or via electronic methods. Members learn how to build relationships, resolve conflict and communicate well with others. This Toastmasters competency teaches members to effectively interact with others at any level, from guests to members and leaders at the club, area, division, district levels and beyond.

Management: While a person may be both a leader and a manager, there is a difference in the skill sets needed for these roles. Within the Toastmasters organization of clubs, areas, divisions and districts, managing deals mostly with planning, organizing and facilitating specific tasks (such as the club treasurer managing the club's budget). Managing also deals with people, whether they are individuals or groups. Managers build camaraderie and teamwork and empower members to learn and grow through the Toastmasters education program.

Strategic Leadership: Every club, area, division and district needs a strategic leader—someone who sees the big picture and has the ideas and vision to do things better, whether it's build a more supportive club environment, lead a team, or attract and retain more members.

The Toastmasters strategic leader has a vision that is both attainable and inspiring. He or she is able to bring about positive changes by inspiring others to get involved and help in the effort to reach common goals.

Building Confidence: In Toastmasters, one of the many ways that members develop confidence is through self-reflection. Through self-reflection and evaluation, members learn to acknowledge their flaws and embrace their capacity for self-improvement. By learning how to set goals and meet them, they gain confidence in their own knowledge, skills and abilities.

DISTINGUISHED CLUB PLAN

Distinguished Club Program (DCP)

Simply stated, each club has 10 goals it tries to meet each year: six are related to education, two are related to membership, one is related to training and one relates to administration. This remains the same under Pathways. However, the names of the six educational goals have new names under Pathways. These goals are collectively known as the Distinguished Club Program (DCP).

During the transition period from the current education system to the new Pathways learning system, the DCP will transition through three stages: Stage 1 (current system will last until at least early 2020), Stage 2 (a hybrid system), and Stage 3 (Pathways).

The current Distinguished Club Program (DCP) includes 10 goals that your club should strive to achieve each year.

STAGE ONE (Current Program)

The Distinguished Club Program (DCP) includes 10 goals that your club should strive to achieve each year.

1. Two Competent Communicator (CC) awards
2. Two more CC awards
3. One Advanced Communicator Bronze (ACB), Advanced Communicator Silver

- (ACS) or Advanced Communicator Gold (ACG) award
- 4. One more ACB, ACS or ACG award
- 5. One Competent Leader (CL), Advanced Leader Bronze (ALB), Advanced Leader Silver (ALS) or Distinguished Toastmaster (DTM) award
- 6. One more CL, ALB ALS or DTM award
- 7. Four new members
- 8. Four more new members
- 9. A minimum of four club officers trained during each of the two training periods
- 10. On time payment of membership dues accompanied by the names of eight members (at least three of whom must be renewing members) for one period and on-time submission of one club officer list.

The 10 Club Goals fall into one of these four categories.

| | | | |
|-----------|------------|----------|----------------|
| Education | Membership | Training | Administration |
|-----------|------------|----------|----------------|

STAGE TWO (Hybrid Program)

Stage two is a combination of the current system and the Pathways system, which I call the Hybrid system.

There will be a transition period during which the current education program runs concurrently with Pathways. Members can participate in one program or the other (or both, if they choose). During this time, clubs will have flexibility when it comes to the DCP. They can still aim for completing six educational goals—but they can choose from 12 options: Members can meet the six current educational goals, the six Pathways goals or a mix of goals from both education programs.

The Hybrid DCP

- 1. Two Competent Communicator (CC) awards
- 2. Two more CC awards
- 3. One Advanced Communicator Bronze (ACB), Advanced Communicator Silver (ACS) or Advanced Communicator Gold (ACG) award
- 4. One more ACB, ACS or ACG award
- 5. One Competent Leader (CL), Advanced Leader Bronze (ALB), Advanced Leader Silver (ALS) or Distinguished Toastmaster (DTM) award
- 6. One more CL, ALB, ALS or DTM award

- P1. Four members complete Level 1
- P2. Two members complete Level 2
- P3. Two more members complete Level 2
- P4. Two members complete Level 3
- P5. One member completes Level 4
- P6. One member completes Level 5

7. Four new members
8. Four more new members
9. A minimum of four club officers trained during each of the two training periods
10. On time payment of membership dues accompanied by the names of eight members (at least three of whom must be renewing members) for one period and on-time submission of one club officer list.

The 10 Club Goals fall into one of these four categories.

| | | | |
|-----------|------------|----------|----------------|
| Education | Membership | Training | Administration |
|-----------|------------|----------|----------------|

| Transition DCP | | | |
|--|--|---|--|
| EDUCATION (SELECT 6 OF 12 GOALS) | | | |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Two CC awards | <input type="checkbox"/> One more ACB, ACS or ACG | <input type="checkbox"/> Four Level 1's | <input type="checkbox"/> Two Level 3's |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Two more CC's | <input type="checkbox"/> One CL, ALB, ALS or DTM award | <input type="checkbox"/> Two Level 2's | <input type="checkbox"/> One Level 4 |
| <input type="checkbox"/> One ACB, ACS or ACG award | <input type="checkbox"/> One more CL, ALB, ALS or DTM | <input type="checkbox"/> Two more Level 2's | <input type="checkbox"/> One Level 5 |

The idea is to make the switch to the DCP in Pathways as seamless as possible. Once the transition period ends, the six Pathways goals will be the DCP educational goals for all clubs. The transition period lasts for two years after all regions have been included in the Pathways rollout.

STAGE THREE (Pathways)

The 10 club goals under Pathways.

1. Four members complete Level 1 in a learning path
2. Two members complete Level 2 in a learning path
3. Two additional members complete Level 2 in a learning path
4. Two members complete Level 3 in a learning path
5. One member completes Level 4 in learning path
6. One member completes Level 5 in a learning path
7. Four new members
8. Four more new members
9. A minimum of four club officers trained during each of the two training periods
10. On time payment of membership dues accompanied by the names of eight members (at least three of whom must be renewing members) for one period and on-time submission of one club officer list.

The 10 Club Goals fall into one of these four categories.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Ethical Leadership

This project addresses the importance of recognizing the effect of decisions that impact ethics, best practices for making ethical decisions and developing an ethical framework.

Purpose: The purpose of this project is to develop a clear understanding of your own ethical framework and create an opportunity for others to hear about and discuss ethics in your organization or community.

Overview: Define an ethical framework for yourself. To do this, you may need to complete personal research beyond the contents of this project. Then, organize and moderate a 20- to 40-minute panel discussion about ethics, followed by a question-and-answer session. If you have never facilitated a panel discussion, review the "Moderate a Panel Discussion" elective project.

This project includes:

- The Ethical Framework resource
- Organizing and moderating a panel discussion as well as a question-and-answer session

PATHWAYS

THE TOASTMASTERS EVALUATION

Start your PATHWAYS learning experience

THE TOASTMASTERS EVALUATION

You may be nervous to receive your first speech evaluation in your club. Don't be—it's through honest, fair evaluations that you truly learn and grow. Every speech you deliver will be evaluated by another Toastmaster, and you will eventually be asked to evaluate others' speeches, which will help you to develop even more. Evaluations give you the feedback you need to advance your skills.

This page shows you how to use the evaluation resources included in the Pathways projects. You will learn valuable techniques for giving and receiving effective, constructive feedback in the "Evaluation and Feedback" project at Level 1.

THE IMPORTANCE OF THE TOASTMASTERS EVALUATION

Toastmasters International founder Ralph C. Smedley said, "No Toastmasters club is fulfilling its obligation to its members unless it brings them the maximum of training in the art of constructive criticism." Evaluations help to boost your confidence and provide you a tangible direction for improvement. They are essential to your Toastmasters experience—they show you what you do well and what you might consider practicing more. Without constructive criticism from others, you may not grow as a communicator or leader.

You have likely already witnessed the benefit of evaluations in your club. A member speaks, receives verbal and written feedback from another Toastmaster, and then uses those comments to improve the next speech. The evaluator's goal is to give the speaker constructive feedback that will help them improve.

The evaluator benefits from this experience, too. Many members believe serving as the evaluator is the most challenging meeting role to fulfill, which makes the benefits so rewarding. When you're the evaluator, you learn to listen more attentively, refine your critical thinking abilities and give feedback tactfully. You are tasked with considering many different factors, such as effective speech delivery techniques, the speaker's skill level, habits and mannerisms, as well as their progress to date. It is your job to consider all of this while delivering an evaluation that is encouraging, thoughtful and motivating.

The evaluator gives an honest, constructive reaction to your efforts using the evaluation criteria provided within your project. Read on to understand the purpose of the criteria before you begin presenting speeches and evaluating others.

WHAT TO EXPECT

BEFORE THE MEETING

You will be assigned an evaluator once you have scheduled your first speech. Send this person the evaluation resource for your project assignment or ensure they can access it in advance of the club meeting. This way, the evaluator can get familiar with what they need to look and listen for during your presentation. Find your evaluation resource toward the end of your project or search for it on Base Camp.

The evaluation resource guides the evaluator's job. Every speech in Pathways has a unique evaluation resource with notes and criteria specific to your assignment. This information helps the evaluator determine how well you achieved each competency or skill.

There are three pages:

Evaluation Form. Page 1 gives an overview of the assignment to help the evaluator understand what it is you're trying to accomplish. The evaluator uses page 2 to score the skills you demonstrated in the speech

Evaluation Criteria. Page 3 helps the evaluator determine your score for each competency. The evaluator will use this page side-by-side with the Evaluation Form to easily determine your scores.

Just as the evaluator should read the evaluation resource ahead of your speech, you should as well. Doing so ensures you know exactly what is expected of you during your speech.

Before the meeting begins, talk with your evaluator and make sure they have everything they need from you. If you want your evaluator to focus on specific skills during your speech, such as eye contact or vocal variety, communicate this before you give your speech.

DURING THE MEETING

At some point after you present your speech, your evaluator will stand up and give a verbal, two- to three-minute evaluation of your presentation. Listen carefully and take notes. You'll want to reference this feedback when preparing your next speech.

At the end of the meeting, your evaluator will return your evaluation resource. Thank them for their feedback and comments. On the resource, you should see scores and notes indicating what you did well and what you may want to consider working on to improve your next speech.

AFTER THE MEETING

Spend time reviewing your evaluator's scores and notes. Read any general comments your evaluator recorded on the first page of the Evaluation Form. Consider how these written notes and their verbal comments may help you better your next speech.

Review the scores and comments on the second page of the Evaluation Form. This is where the evaluator rated you on competencies specific to the speech you gave. To give an objective, honest evaluation, the evaluator used the Evaluation Criteria page to determine and select the score that best corresponds with your skill level on each competency Evaluation criteria are ranked on a scale of 5 to 1, with 5 being the highest score and 1 the lowest. The table below explains the different ratings.

| Score | Definition | Explanation |
|-------|--------------|--|
| 5 | Exemplary | You do an exemplary job accomplishing the competency |
| 4 | Excel | You excel at accomplishing the competency |
| 3 | Accomplished | You accomplish the competency |
| 2 | Emerging | Your ability to accomplish this competency is emerging |
| 1 | Developing | You are developing this competency |

Although you will strive for the highest score possible, it's important to know that a score of 3 is favorable—it means you accomplished that skill. The objective isn't to achieve the high score. It is to learn and demonstrate the skill.

Your scores are just that—yours. You and your evaluator are the only people who see them. Use these scores to determine your strengths and areas in which you can improve. Your scores are important because they help to assess your skills, but keep in mind that a low score does not mean you can't move on to the next project on your path. You are free to start the next project no matter which scores you achieve. However, if you receive low ratings on any particular project, you may wish to repeat the project to strengthen your skills before moving forward.

Each level in your path builds on the last level. The more confident you are in your scores and competencies, the more confident you will be in your ability to complete future, more difficult projects. Finally, as you read through your feedback and scores, it's important to remember a few key points

- Good evaluators always offer suggestions and areas for improvement. Never expect to receive an evaluation that is all praise.
- Evaluations are based on opinion. Though evaluators follow the guidelines established in the “Evaluation and Feedback” project at Level 1, comments are still subjective and you may not always agree with your evaluator.
- Many members believe effective evaluations are sometimes difficult to give and receive. This is why being the evaluator can be challenging. You will become a better evaluator by observing effective evaluations and by giving more evaluations at club meetings.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Evaluation and Feedback

This project addresses the skills needed to give and receive feedback. You will learn about giving, receiving and applying feedback.

Purpose: The purpose of this project is to present a speech on any topic, receive feedback, and apply the feedback to a second speech.

Overview: Choose any topic for your first 5- to 7-minute speech. After your speech, carefully review your feedback. At a different club meeting, present a 5- to 7-minute speech in which you incorporate feedback from your first speech. You may choose to present the same speech again or a new speech. Your second speech should reflect some or all of the feedback from your first speech. Finally, after you have completed both speeches, serve as an evaluator at a club meeting and deliver constructive feedback about another member's presentation.

This project includes:

- A 5- to 7-minute speech
- Incorporating feedback from your first speech into a second 5- to 7-minute speech
- Serving as a speech evaluator

This tutorial is meant to explain the Pathways program before you begin it. It is just my interpretation of Pathways. I have made it as accurate as possible - but I make no guarantees.

If you have a hardcopy in your possession - it's probably out of date. The website is constantly being critiqued by various Toastmasters. So the latest version is always found here.

This is the date it was last updated: January 10, 2018

- The handout online consists of 4-11x17 pages, printed back and front, so there will be two 11x17 pages in the handout.

OVERVIEW

There are 50 projects in Pathways, and more will be created after the rollout is complete. All projects will be available online in English, along with eight other official Toastmasters languages (Arabic, French, German, Portuguese, Simplified Chinese, Spanish and Traditional Chinese, and Vietnamese (VCS)).

Completing a path is a significant accomplishment, but your journey doesn't end at work. Pathways offers 20 distinct paths to help you broaden your communication and leadership skills. You can complete additional paths to build and develop different skills that you use in your personal and professional life. The highest educational designation you can earn as a member is the Distinguished Toastmaster (DTM) award, given to those who complete two paths, earn a specific volunteer leadership role and complete the "Integrating Leadership" project. The DTM recognizes a superior level of achievement in both communication and leadership. You can find more information on how to begin and options to become a Distinguished Toastmaster by visiting www.toastmasters.org/dtm.

Choose a PATH from the list above, then read from top to bottom and use which required projects and which elective are required to complete that path. Each of the 10 learning paths required 10 required projects and a minimum of 4 elective projects. Members may complete as many projects as they desire.

Printing Costs

In my part of the world (Baltimore), Staples and Office Depot charges about $6 per set (all the pages shown above) when done in color.

But if you go to a printer, not a copy center, you can do them for about $1 per set. A club, area or division might want to go together and get them all made at once.

I've added the pages here in three versions: .jpg, gif, and .pdf. Ask your printer to look at each or print a sample to see which works best. These were all done in a program called XARA, and so I cannot provide the originals.

Remember, check this website before printing - for the latest version. Please keep my name, email and phone number on the handouts, as people who get copies often want more information, a newer version, or have questions.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Managing a Difficult Audience

This project covers common behaviors of difficult audience members and how to address each behavior in a calm, effective and professional way.

Purpose: The purpose of this project is to practice the skills needed to address audience challenges when you present outside of your Toastmasters club.

Overview: Prepare a 5- to 7-minute speech on a topic of your choosing. You may write a new speech or use a speech you presented previously. WHERE LEADERS ARE MADE

MEETING ROLES

Start your PATHWAYS learning experience

The success of the club is determined by the members who speak and fulfill meeting roles as well as the club officers who make the meetings happen. View this page online (page 6).

MEETING ROLES

At club meetings you take on meeting roles. Each one adds value to your learning experience and helps you improve your communication and leadership skills. Below are brief descriptions of each to familiarize you with who does what at a meeting. If you are fulfilling a role at an upcoming meeting, read A Toastmaster Wears Many Hats (Item 1167DT) or visit www.toastmasters.org/meetingroles for more detailed information.

Speaker: Each speaker prepares and presents a speech based on a project assignment from their learning path in Pathways.

Evaluator: The evaluator observes a speaker's presentation and gives constructive comments in a brief evaluation speech. In addition to a verbal evaluation, the evaluator gives a written evaluation using a specific resource.

Timer: The timer helps to keep the meeting on schedule and times each speech. When you're the timer, you will use a stopwatch, timing lights or other device provided by your club to keep track of time. At the end of the meeting, you share timing records with club members.

Table Topicsmaster: The Table Topicsmaster facilitates Table Topics—the meeting segment in which members deliver brief, impromptu speeches. The Table Topicsmaster prepares and introduces the topics and determines the speaking order.

General Evaluator: The General Evaluator evaluates everything that takes place and gives feedback to improve future meetings. When you serve as General Evaluator, you are responsible for pointing out what worked well and what could be better next time.

Toastmaster: The Toastmaster hosts and conducts the meeting. When you're the Toastmaster, you introduce speakers and keep the meeting moving along. This role is generally reserved for experienced members who are familiar with the club and its procedures.

Grammarian: The grammarian introduces new words to members, listens to the way members speak and presents a verbal report at the end of the meeting. The grammarian provides feedback to help Toastmasters improve their language skills and stretch their vocabularies.

Ah-Counter: The Ah-Counter helps speakers keep track of the filler words and sounds they use and gives a report at the end of the meeting. Words may be inappropriate interjections such as and, well, but, so, you know. Sounds may be ah, um, er.

Optional meeting participants: Your club may have other meeting participants, such as Joke Master, parliamentarian and Word Master. Ask your club officers if your club includes additional meeting participants and how to fulfill those roles.

PATHWAYS

MENTORING

Start your PATHWAYS learning experience

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Mentoring

Assist the protégé in setting goals and developing a plan for completing his or her project. Use the forms included in this project to set goals, plan, and give and receive feedback. After your mentorship, deliver a 5- to 7-minute speech at a club meeting about your first experience as a Toastmasters mentor and what you learned from it.

This project includes:

- Working with a protégé to complete a project
- The Protégé Success Plan resource

CORE COMPETENCIES

Start your PATHWAYS learning experience

CORE COMPETENCIES: It is important to note that each member using Base Camp will have the opportunity to select from many electives to extend their learning. With the addition of electives, members have the flexibility to cover all core competencies within each path. The five core competencies are: Public Speaking, Interpersonal Communication, Strategic Leadership, Management and Confidence. Confidence is unique because it cannot be taught, but is gained in every path.

Public Speaking: builds members' confidence in delivering both prepared and impromptu speeches in the Toastmasters club environment as well as their personal and professional lives. Through practice and peer evaluation, members learn how to present their messages effectively, concisely and professionally. This competency provides tools that members can use to learn prepared and impromptu speaking skills.

Interpersonal Communication: builds members' confidence in communicating with others, whether verbally, non-verbally, in writing or via electronic methods. Members learn how to build relationships, resolve conflict and communicate well with others. This Toastmasters competency teaches members to effectively interact with others at any level, from guests to members and leaders at the club, area, division, district levels and beyond.

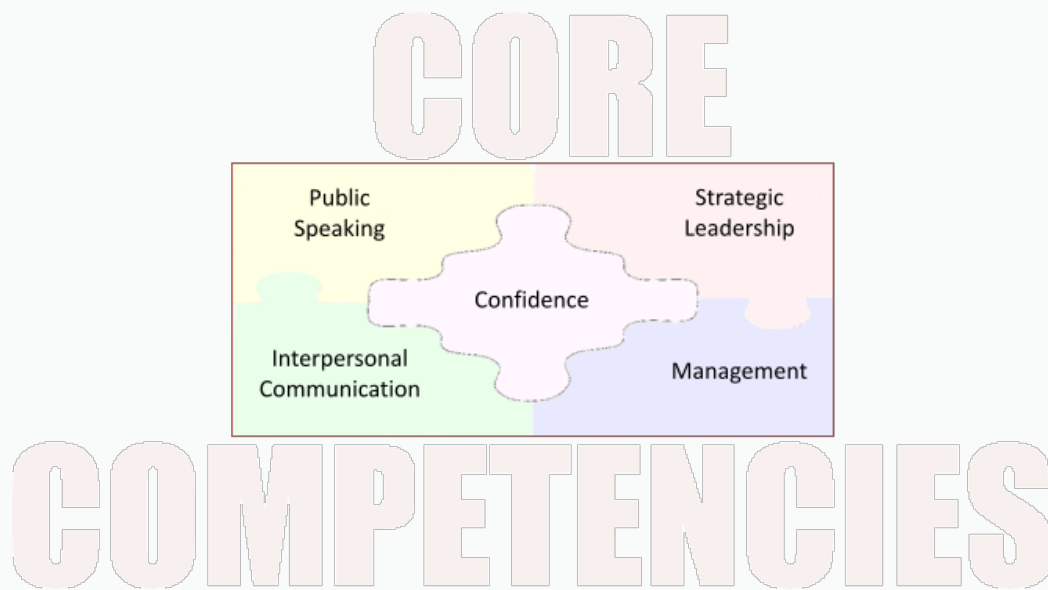

Management: While a person may be both a leader and a manager, there is a difference in the skill sets needed for these roles. Within the Toastmasters organization of clubs, areas, divisions and districts, managing deals mostly with planning, organizing and facilitating specific tasks (such as the club treasurer managing the club's budget). Managing also deals with people, whether they are individuals or groups. Managers build camaraderie and teamwork and empower members to learn and grow through the Toastmasters education program.

Strategic Leadership: Every club, area, division and district needs a strategic leader—someone who sees the big picture and has the ideas and vision to do things better, whether it's build a more supportive club environment, lead a team, or attract and retain more members.

The Toastmasters strategic leader has a vision that is both attainable and inspiring. He or she is able to bring about positive changes by inspiring others to get involved and help in the effort to reach common goals.

Building Confidence: In Toastmasters, one of the many ways that members develop confidence is through self-reflection. Through self-reflection and evaluation, members learn to acknowledge their flaws and embrace their capacity for self-improvement. By learning how to set goals and meet them, they gain confidence in their own knowledge, skills and abilities.
